For the purpose of these terms and conditions of the contract Tree Life is a company under the Companies Act 1985

Definition: A large company is defined as 50 or more employees.

Terms and conditions.

1. Location

- 1.1. The set location for the examinations for June 2008 is set to be at The Pensford Memorial Hall, Publo Lane, Pensford, Bristol, BS39 4HW. This location is subject to change at any time and will not necessarily be the location used for any other examinations of this kind. If location does change notification will be given via the contact details on this form to anyone who is registered, and has fully paid.
- 1.2. It is not the responsibility of Tree Life to direct anybody to the site or offer any form of transport.
- 1.3. Any items brought onto the location are the sole responsibility of the candidate and Tree Life can in no way be held liable.
- 1.4. It is Tree Life's decision on when exams will be sent and timetabled for and at what time of the year if at all.

2. Payment

- 2.1. Full payment is required along with the application form to register for the examination with ABC (Awarding Body Consortium). An order number will be accepted if it is from a local authority in which case an invoice will be sent detailing that order number. Until full payment is made the payment is the candidate responsibility and it should be noted that no candidate registrations will be made until full payment is made, even if order numbers have been given
- 2.2. No refund of any money will be given except in exceptional circumstances which will be determined and assessed by Tree Life on a case by case basis.
- 2.3. No refund of the registration fee for ABC will be made at any time for any reason
- 2.4. Tree Life is VAT registered and therefore all invoices will include VAT which will be clearly identified on the invoice.
- 2.5. If payment for goods and services are not received Tree Life are legally entitled to take the unpaid invoice to the small claims court to reclaim the balance outstanding.
- 2.6. Tree Life reserves the right to charge large companies (defined in terms of reference above), a rate of 8% interest over base rate for each late day of the agreed time limit for payment. The rate is set by the Late Payments of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998.

3. Examinations

- 3.1. All candidates must adhere to ABC rulings and codes of conduct at all time throughout the examination process.
- 3.2. All details of the exam e.g. timings are the candidates responsibility. And must make sure they are aware of all the details they need.
- 3.3. The exam room can only hold a certain amount of candidates therefore this is based on a first come first served basis, based on paying the full amount.
- 3.4. Even if a candidate does not show up to the examination they are still liable for the payment and no refund will be given
- 3.5. Application forms must be received and paid for by the 20th March 2008 to be registered any application forms arriving after this date will not be processed.

4. Communication

- 4.1. All communications will be by the details given on this form, therefore the candidate must be clear when writing information that is required for office use.

5. Persona Details

- 5.1. Any personal information relating to the candidate will be kept on file but will not be given to third parties except for ABC the examining body at any time without written authorisation from the candidate in question.
